Taking Care Of Aging Parents Update

On 11/28/07 the Wall Street Journal did a great article called "More Resources To Help Caregivers Help Themselves"

It included the following resources I felt you should have:

National Family Caregivers Association      www.thefamilycaregiver.org

Tips for caregivers and agencies that can help in the US

National Alliance for Caregiving      www.caregiving.org

Research based organization about caregiving.

Family Caregiver Alliance

www.caregiver.org &
www.respite.org

Links to caregiver supports and alerts on policy initiatives.

AARP

www.AARP.org/families/caregiving

Guide to caregiving and message boards for caregivers.

We hope these additional resources help those of you doing this very important job!

SMART PEOPLE MARCH 11-13, 2008

The first workshop was a great success and gave our participants insights and new ways to manage the smart people who work for them. The benefit for companies is their most intelligent and talented people will be better managed and therefore turnover of this talent pool will be lowered. There is still space available in the March course.

TRAINING FOR CHANGE AGENTS MARCH 4-7, 2008

In this course we train people from different companies whose job it is to be internal change agents. This can mean a change in enterprise wide software to a downsizing. Our program teaches drivers of change how to do it more effectively and without ruining their lives. There is space available but it is limited.

NOTE: If you are interested in bringing any of our workshops to your company we would be happy to speak with you about that.

Or if your company wants to purchase a group of 10+ spaces in our 2007/2008 public workshops and enjoy a larger discount contact us for more information. There is a corporate discount for companies that buy 10 or more spaces at a time.
