Happy Holidays!!!!

MANAGING CHANGE WORKSHOP® COMES TO NEW JERSEY

On December 17-19, 2008 John will be leading a Managing Corporate Change® workshop at the Hyatt in Princeton, N. J. This workshop has helped major corporations deal with their changes for over 25 years. Results range from: Projects brought in early and under budget to employees rating their companies highly for the way they were treated during stressful closures and layoffs.

There is limited space available so if you want to attend or refer someone please let John know as soon as possible.

Productive Relationships February 24-26 & June 23-25, 2009

This wonderful workshop is one of the workshops Women Moving Forward graduates take that has them get promoted in their respective companies 75% faster than non graduates. If you are interested call John to discuss availability.

Leading Projects January 12-16, 2009

This workshop taught you how to be a better project leader and project team member. It will give you the enhanced skills to lead difficult projects and stay in good shape while you do it!

If you are interested call John at our office.
